

Report to:	Lincolnshire Agreed Syllabus Conference
Date:	28 February 2024
Subject:	Draft timeline for the Agreed Syllabus

Summary:

This report invites the Agreed Syllabus Conference to review the proposed timeline for the development of the Lincolnshire Agreed Syllabus and to consider whether it supports the timeline.

Recommendation(s):

That the Agreed Syllabus Conference support the timeline for the development of the Lincolnshire Agreed Syllabus, as set out at Appendix A.

1. Background

At its meeting on 10 January 2024, the Agreed Syllabus Conference unanimously supported the proposals that Wendy Harrison (RE Adviser) develop the next Religious Education Agreed Syllabus for Lincolnshire through an adaptation of a syllabus by currently being developed by Wendy Harrison.

Although work on the revised Lincolnshire Agreed Syllabus is not contracted to begin until April 2024, it has been agreed that Wendy Harrison can begin preparatory work prior to this date.

A proposed timeline is set out at appendix A for consideration.

2. Conclusion

Members of the conference are invited to consider and support the timeline for the development of the Lincolnshire Agreed Syllabus, as set out at appendix A.

3. Appendices

These are listed below and are attached at the back of the report:

Appendix A	Lincolnshire Agreed Syllabus for Religious Education: timeline.
