

Definitive Map & Public Rights of Way Sub-Committee

Sturton by Stow
DMMO 328

Photo 1 – across Tillbridge Road facing south (route goes to the left of the double garage).

Photo 2 - close up of area where route travels to the left of the garage.

Photo 3 – facing north the edge of the garage where the route would run.

Photo 4 – facing north the route travels to the right of the shed through the metal facing.

Photo 5 – facing south; the route to the right of the shed and through the shrub.

Photo 6 – facing north the route travels to the right of the picture next to the hedge and again through the shrub.

Photo 7 – facing south the route travels to the left of the photo and through the gate in the fence.

Photo 8 – facing south the route travels next to the hedge on the left

Photo 9 – facing east the route travels through the long grass

Photo 10 – facing south route travels next to hedge

Photo 11 – photo of hedge in the approximate position where the route goes through

Photo 12 – facing north the route comes from the right and goes through the hedge

Photo 13 – facing north west the route travels approximately in the direction of the arrow through the field of wheat.

