	“The Diocesan RE Adviser continues to support schools across Lincolnshire with the delivery of effective RE. Due to the current context, this training and support has been delivered virtually. Whilst the Diocesan Education Team is aiming to move to a distributed model as soon as the context allows, the current approach has enabled support and training to be delivered more frequently, more flexibly and to a larger number of teachers. The support has ranged from issues around RE subject leadership and RE curriculum design to subject knowledge and assessing pupil progress in RE. The Diocesan RE Adviser continues to offer support to church schools preparing for inspection under Section 48 and is also working closely with colleagues in North and North East Lincolnshire as they begin to implement the Lincolnshire agreed syllabus for RE. Over the last few weeks, she has also led a national symposium and several follow-on discussion events as part of the REConnecting Lincolnshire project, which seeks to address poor religious literacy across the county.”)
