Report to	Health Scrutiny Committee for Lincolnshire
Date:	20 April 2016
Subject:	Lincolnshire Partnership NHS Foundation Trust Response to the Comprehensive Inspection by the Care Quality Commission

Summary

The Care Quality Commission (CQC) inspected Lincolnshire Partnership NHS Foundation Trust (LPFT) between 30 November and 4 December 2015. On 21 April 2016, the CQC published its summary report on LPFT, as well as a detailed report on each of the eleven service areas. The CQC's report on LPFT is attached at Appendix A. Each of the detailed reports is available on the CQC's website: <http://www.cqc.org.uk/provider/RP7>

John Brewin, the Chief Executive, and Ian Jerams, the Director of Operations, from Lincolnshire Partnership NHS Foundation Trust will be in attendance to present information on this item.

Actions Required:

- (1) To consider the Summary Report on Lincolnshire Partnership NHS Foundation Trust, published by the Care Quality Commission on 21 April 2016 (Appendix A to this report).
- (2) To consider and comment on the response of Lincolnshire Partnership NHS Foundation Trust to the Care Quality Commission comprehensive inspection report (Appendix B to this report).

1. Background

Introduction

On 21 April 2016, the Care Quality Commission (CQC) published its reports following the comprehensive inspection of Lincolnshire Partnership NHS Foundation Trust (LPFT), which took place between 30 November and 4 December 2015.

The CQC rates services in five domains, which are referred to as Key Lines of Enquiry, which are safe, effective, caring, responsive and well led. There are four possible ratings: 'inadequate', 'requires improvement', 'good' and 'outstanding'. In addition there is also a single overall rating for the Trust. The findings for the Trust overall for each key line of enquiry are set out in the table below:

Key Line of Enquiry	CQC Finding
Are services safe?	Inadequate
Are services effective?	Requires Improvement
Are services caring?	Good
Are services responsive?	Good
Are services well-led?	Requires Improvement

Overall, LPFT was rated as 'Requires Improvement'.

In addition to the overall report, there are eleven individual service based reports, available at the following link on the CQC's website: <http://www.cqc.org.uk/provider/RP7>

The findings for each service are summarised below: -

	Service	Safe	Effective	Caring	Responsive	Well Led	Total
1	CAMHS Community		*	*			*
2	CAMHS Inpatient
3	Community Mental Health Adult
4	Older Adults Community
5	Crisis RHT
6	Substance Misuse Services
7	Older Adults Inpatient
8	Adult Inpatient - Acute
9	Adult Inpatient - Rehabilitation
10	Learning Disability Community
11	Forensic Inpatient

Key

Red - Inadequate

Yellow - Requires Improvement

Green - Good

Green asterisk - Outstanding

Response of LPFT

The Trust is required to submit an action plan to the CQC within 30 days of publication. The Trust Board will scrutinise this on a monthly basis to ensure all the action are completed within an agreed timeline. The Trust's initial response is set out at Appendix B to the report.
