The Council will exercise all its powers and duties in accordance with the law and this Constitution.

1.2 The Constitution

The Council's Constitution consists of Parts 1 to 7 of this document.

The purpose of the Constitution is to:

1. enable the Council to provide clear leadership to the community in partnership with members of the public, businesses and other organisations;
2. support the active involvement of members of the public in the process of local authority decision-making;
3. help Councillors represent their constituents more effectively;
4. enable decisions to be taken efficiently and effectively;
5. create a powerful and effective means of holding decision-makers to public account;
6. ensure that no one will review or scrutinise a decision in which they were directly involved;
7. ensure that those responsible for decision making are clearly identifiable to local people and that they explain the reasons for decisions; and
8. provide a means of improving the delivery of services to the community.

1.4 Suspension of the Constitution

(a) Limit to suspension

The Articles of this Constitution may not be suspended. The Rules of Procedure may be suspended by the full Council to the extent permitted within those Rules and the law.

(b) Procedure to suspend

A motion to suspend any rules will not be moved without notice unless at least one half of the whole number of Councillors is present. The extent and duration of suspension will be proportionate to the result to be achieved, taking account of the purposes of the Constitution set out in Article this 1.

1.5 Duty to monitor and review the Constitution

The Monitoring Officer will monitor and review the operation of the Constitution to ensure that the aims and principles of the Constitution are given full effect and to ensure that appropriate amendments are recommended as and when necessary for the purpose of updating or improving the Constitution. The Monitoring Officer shall review the Constitution annually with a view to recommending any such amendments to the Annual Meeting of the Council.

Protocol for monitoring and review of Constitution by Monitoring Officer

A key role for the Monitoring Officer is to be aware of the strengths and weaknesses of the Constitution adopted by the Council, and to make recommendations for ways in which it could be amended in order to better achieve the purposes set out in this Article 1. In undertaking this task the Monitoring Officer may:

In formulating recommendations for amendments to the Constitution the Monitoring Officer may convene a group of Councillors and where in the Monitoring Officer's opinion it is appropriate other stakeholders to advise him or her on any amendments.

1.6 Approval of changes to the Constitution

Other than changes to the Constitution which are matters of fact, update or amend references to statutory provisions or correct typographical errors in which case the amendments can be made by the Monitoring Officer, changes to the Constitution will only be approved by the full Council after consideration of the proposal by the Monitoring Officer.

However, if either

The changes shall be submitted to the next available meeting of the Council to consider formal approval. Regardless of whether the changes are formally approved by the Council, decisions and actions taken in reliance on changes to the Constitution duly made under this paragraph between implementation of the changes and the decision whether or not to approve those changes shall be treated as having been taken in accordance with the Constitution.

1.7 Interpretation of the Constitution

Where the Constitution permits the Council to choose between different courses of action, the Council will always choose that option which it thinks is closest to the purposes stated above.

The ruling of the Chairman of the Council as to the construction or application of this Constitution or as to any proceedings of the Council shall not be challenged at any meeting of the Council. Such interpretation will have regard to the purposes of this Constitution contained in this Article 1.

For the purpose of this Constitution “a working day” is defined as a day on which the County Offices is open for its normal working hours.
