

Open Report on behalf of Andrew Crookham,
Deputy Chief Executive & Executive Director - Resources

Report to:	County Council
Date:	1 December 2023
Subject:	Result of By Election for Grantham North Electoral Division

Summary:

The purpose of this report is to formally report to the Council the outcome of the Lincolnshire County Council By-Election for the Grantham North Electoral Division which took place on 9 November 2023.

Recommendation(s):

That the Electoral Return as set out in Appendix A be noted.

1. Background

- 1.1 A By-Election for the Grantham North Division took place on 9 November 2023 following the sad passing of Councillor Ray Wootten. Councillor Ray Wootten had represented the division since his election on 4 June 2009.
- 1.2 Following the By-Election on 9 November 2023, Paul Michael Martin was elected to the position of County Councillor for the Grantham North Division.
- 1.3 Appendix A to this report sets out the formal notice of Return of Persons Elected for that division.

2. Legal Issues:

Equality Act 2010

Under section 149 of the Equality Act 2010, the Council must, in the exercise of its functions, have due regard to the need to:

- Eliminate discrimination, harassment, victimisation and any other conduct that is prohibited by or under the Act.

- Advance equality of opportunity between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it.
- Foster good relations between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it.

The relevant protected characteristics are age; disability; gender reassignment; pregnancy and maternity; race; religion or belief; sex; and sexual orientation.

Having due regard to the need to advance equality of opportunity involves having due regard, in particular, to the need to:

- Remove or minimise disadvantages suffered by persons who share a relevant protected characteristic that are connected to that characteristic.
- Take steps to meet the needs of persons who share a relevant protected characteristic that are different from the needs of persons who do not share it.
- Encourage persons who share a relevant protected characteristic to participate in public life or in any other activity in which participation by such persons is disproportionately low.

The steps involved in meeting the needs of disabled persons that are different from the needs of persons who are not disabled include, in particular, steps to take account of disabled persons' disabilities.

Having due regard to the need to foster good relations between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it involves having due regard, in particular, to the need to tackle prejudice, and promote understanding.

Compliance with the duties in section 149 may involve treating some persons more favourably than others.

The duty cannot be delegated and must be discharged by the decision-maker. To discharge the statutory duty the decision-maker must analyse all the relevant material with the specific statutory obligations in mind. If a risk of adverse impact is identified consideration must be given to measures to avoid that impact as part of the decision-making process.

There are no direct implications in relation the noting the result of the By Election.

Joint Strategic Needs Assessment (JSNA and the Joint Health and Wellbeing Strategy (JHWS)

The Council must have regard to the Joint Strategic Needs Assessment (JSNA) and the Joint Health and Wellbeing Strategy (JHWS) in coming to a decision.

There are no direct implications for the JSNA or JHWS.

Crime and Disorder

Under section 17 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998, the Council must exercise its various functions with due regard to the likely effect of the exercise of those functions on, and the need to do all that it reasonably can to prevent crime and disorder in its area (including anti-social and other behaviour adversely affecting the local environment), the misuse of drugs, alcohol and other substances in its area and re-offending in its area.

There are no direct implications in relation to crime and disorder.
